InfoCision Honored As a Champion of Opportunity

Akron based marketing company recognized for its commitment to, and leadership in, integrating individuals with disabilities into Ohio's workforce

COLUMBUS, OH – Opportunities for Ohioans with Disabilities (OOD) today recognized InfoCision Management Corporation for its commitment and leadership in integrating individuals with disabilities into Ohio's workforce. The Akron based marketing company was presented with the Champion of Opportunity Award, as part of OOD's annual business recognition program, during a brief ceremony at its company headquarters.

“InfoCision understands that Ohioans with disabilities have the skills and abilities to meet the critical workforce needs of businesses across Ohio.” said OOD Executive Director Kevin L. Miller. “Their commitment to inclusion and equal opportunity has had a positive impact on hundreds of Ohioans and has helped position the company as an industry leader in a highly competitive market.”

The Champion of Opportunity Award honors companies that have gone “above and beyond” in their commitment and who serve as statewide examples of what it means to provide quality employment opportunities and increased independence for individuals with disabilities.

“We are honored to be recognized with the Champion of Opportunity Award,” said InfoCision Chief of Staff Steve Brubaker. “Being included among well respected companies goes a long way to validate all that we have done to create an inclusive and diverse workplace. We are so proud of all of our outstanding employees and their commitment to excellence here at InfoCision.”

The Opportunity Awards recognize companies at various levels: from those who have just begun to recruit, hire, and retain individuals with disabilities to those with a proven track record of integrating individuals with disabilities into their workforce.
