with Disabilities

Are You Experiencing Vision Loss?

Losing your vision can be stressful and difficult. You may be worried about finding a job or keeping your current job; losing your independence; and/or losing access to important information and services because of reduced mobility or other barriers.

Opportunities for Ohioans with Disabilities (OOD) can help! OOD is a statewide agency ready to partner with you if you are working, or looking for work, and experiencing challenges due to impaired or lost vision or another disability. We have decades of experience overcoming barriers from transportation and mobility issues to computer access and on the job accommodations.

MOST OOD SERVICES ARE FREE
